COMMUNITY UNITED EFFORT (CUE)

National Missing Persons Conference

- CUE Mission: To join efforts with all concerned, seeking closure of tragedies, as we remain in search of the missing.
- CUE Oath: "I offer myself to those who have nowhere else to turn. These desperate people who ask for my help have unique situations. Yet, however unique, they are bound together with the commonality of being the loved one of a missing person."
~Monica Caison

Purpose & Objective

To offer free quality training for those who experience a missing individual, either by profession or personal journey. Education brings forth empowerment to endure the critical length of any investigation while exploring new techniques and utilizing technology and professional resources that can afford a resolution.

Dear Supporter

On the behalf of our board of directors and volunteers we request your support for any level of sponsorship for our national conference highlighting missing persons and victims of crime.

The annual conference provides a much-needed training – networking – support for all those who work in the field of missing persons nationwide; but more importantly those who suffer the loss of a missing loved one. Our event will bring more than 300 attendees from advocates, organizations, search teams, private investigators, coroners, law officials, families of the missing and crime victims to Wilmington.

We value your contribution towards our effort to help educate and provide unity among those who work on the ground floor to provide services and search efforts for missing children and adults. We are proud to be the host city and are one of the first to reach beyond the daily political avenues of solving cases; bringing forth a national understanding of the grief and devastation concerning missing persons and those that are left behind to suffer and that go unnoticed.

Ways you can help, The most important support is monetary contributions, this aids our center to provide this training at no cost. We need 300 swag promotional items for welcome bags, gift baskets, door prizes, raffle and auction items. These items are given out to guests all weekend long. Gift Cards are used for supplies needed for the conference from printing, gas and presentation; food and drinks. Certificates will be provided as thank you gifts for instructors and attendee give a ways.

When: March 23rd, 24th, 25th and 26th of 2023

Where: Holiday Inn Suites 5032 Market Street Wilmington, North Carolina
